

A romantic outdoor dinner table at night. In the foreground, a large white plate holds a roasted fish fillet topped with green peas, served with a fresh green salad. To the left of the plate is a tall, slender glass of white wine. A small, lit candle in a textured glass holder sits to the right of the plate. In the background, a dark bottle of wine stands on the table, and another lit candle is visible. The background is softly blurred, showing warm, golden bokeh lights from string lights and other tables, creating a cozy and intimate atmosphere.
